

Scotland's Geodiversity Forum

Annual General Meeting

Saturday 2 March 2012, 1.30 to 5pm

BGS Murchison House, West Mains Road,
Edinburgh EH9 3LA

Programme

- 1.30 pm      Annual General Meeting
Apologies, minutes of AGM 10 March 2012
Reports from the Chair and Treasurer
Appointment of Prof Iain Stewart as Patron of the Forum
Election of Executive Committee
AOB
- 1.50 pm      Presentations: Sources of information that can support the work of the Forum, Geoconservation groups, etc. Two presentations from the British Geological Survey on recent progress on online maps and databases, and from Colin Macfadyen, Scottish Natural Heritage on the Geological Conservation Review and other initiatives. Followed by questions and discussion.
- 2.45 pm      Tea break
- 3.15 pm      Discussion: future directions for the Forum

Opening presentation by Prof Iain Stewart, followed by discussion. Depending on numbers, we may split into smaller discussion groups and reconvene at the end. Discussions will focus on what the Forum should do over the next few years to take forward our aims of promoting Scotland's geodiversity, widening the profile of geodiversity and influencing national and local policies.
- 4.45 pm      Wrap up, depart.
- 5.30 pm      Informal meet up for further chat, drink and meal in city centre pub.

Directions to the venue: BGS Murchison House on West Mains Road, Edinburgh EH9 3LA is at the west side of Edinburgh University's Kings Buildings Campus. From the city centre (The Mound) catch Lothian bus service 41 (stops outside Murchison House) or 42 (stops a short distance away at the junction of West Mains Road and Mayfield Road). There is plenty of parking in the car park and on West Mains Road. Map - <http://binged.it/WzAO1n>.
